Re: Superb Motors Inc., et al. v. Anthony Deo, et al., Docket No: 2:23-cv-6188-JMW

Dear Judge Wicks:

This firm represents defendant Flushing Bank in the above-referenced matter. We write to respectfully request that Flushing Bank be excused from attending the conference scheduled for May 9, 2025, to address the issues raised in ECF No. 256, the Superb Plaintiffs<sup>1</sup> motion brought by order to show cause to modify the preliminary injunction previously entered by the Hon. Orelia E. Merchant (the “Injunction”). The Injunction applies to the Deo Defendants<sup>2</sup> and involves issues surrounding vehicles in the possession of the Deo Defendants and Superb Plaintiffs. The Injunction does not involve or impact Flushing Bank.

Flushing Bank does not take a position on the Superb Plaintiffs’ motion to modify the Injunction. Additionally, Flushing Bank was previously excused from attending conferences and evidentiary hearings related to the Injunction. ECF Docket Nos. 41, 141, 151, and Order dated October 25, 2024, and the Order dated March 26, 2025. Accordingly, Flushing Bank respectfully requests that its counsel be excused from the appearance on May 9, 2025, as it relates solely to the Injunction.
